

Council Notes-November 28, 2012

For questions or information, contact Town Hall at 886-2177 or Council Members at signalmountaintn.gov.

- The Council will hold its next work session November 30th at 10am. The agenda includes introductions to new employees; an update from Cleveland Grimes on the WWTa sewer moratorium; a presentation on salt water pool systems; information on the location of bee hives; adopting New Street Criteria and an ordinance adopting an administrative hearing officer process; and a discussion of crosswalks and board appointments.
- At its next meeting, on Thursday, December 6th, the Planning Commission will review preliminary drawings and begin discussion of a new subdivision, Wild Ridge at Fox Run, proposed by High Acres, Inc.
- Johnson, Murphy, and Wright will present the Town's audit report and Sandy McCrea will present the results of the MACC's recent strategic planning session at the Town's next regular meeting on December 12th at 6:30pm.
- Celebrate Christmas at the MACC on Saturday, December 1st from 5-8pm. Activities are available for both adults and kids. Eat, drink, be merry and shop for gifts provided by local businesses. Santa will be available for pictures and will lead the lighting of the Christmas tree at 7:45pm.
- Glen Showalter has created a Signal Mountain Christmas Train coloring book to support the restoration, maintenance and storage of the Christmas Train. The books are available at local businesses and the MACC for a $5 donation.
- The following boards have openings: Zoning Appeals, Transportation, Construction, Design Review, Historical, Library, MACC, Planning, Parks, Personnel, Recreation and Tree. Residents and incoming residents of Windtree and Fox Run are welcome to apply. Appointments will be effective January 1st. A description of boards and their functions is available on the town website and application forms may be downloaded. For more information, contact the town manager.
